Free Breakfast for Y6 pupils during SATs Week

Y6 children are cordially invited to attend Breakfast Club, free of charge, during SATs week (w/b 13th May 2019). They will receive a cooked breakfast (if desired) and they will get chance to relax and prepare with their friends for the tests that day.

This has always proved very successful in the past, with 100% Y6 pupils attending.

Year 3 Visitors

Year 3 have been working with the Hylton Castle Project to create a banners for the Medieval festival that will take place at the castle.

The children really enjoyed learning about the Medieval times. They used their learning to draw pictures which will be included on their banner.

Summer Term Breakdown for Attendance

- 0 days missed = 100%
- 1 day missed = 98.27%
- 2 days missed = 96.55%
- 3 days missed = 94.82%

Please note that a penalty notice may be issued if a leave of absence is taken without permission.

Happy Birthday for the coming week to:

Lily Newby
Mason Harris
Mauro Silva
Isabelle Robson

Nursery Green Fingers

Nursery have been looking for signs of growth. Linking to our book of the week, 'Jack and the Beanstalk', children have planted broad beans. Fingers crossed they grow!

Fire Fighters

The afternoon nursery children have had a visit this week from fire-fighters. We loved looking at their uniform and sitting in the fire engine.

We even used their hose to wash Miss Swinburne's car.

Attendance Awards

Congratulations to the following classes for winning the attendance awards for week ending 26th April:

Rec:Y1 95.69%
KS2:Y5 99.17%
