FODI (Friends of the Drop In for Asylum Seekers and Refugees in Sunderland)

On Thursday we were lucky enough to have two visitors come into our assembly. Steve, from FODI and Saman who is a refugee from Iran. The children (and staff) learnt a lot in the assembly and asked some great questions.

Two of the questions asked were:

- What were you living on while you were waiting for a government decision?
- Would you go back to Iran if the government there changed?

Steve, who works regularly with refugees, said that he wishes that everyone would understand that the answer to the second question is usually 'yes' – as was Saman's.

It's well worth asking your children about Saman's story!

Sun FM

Tim West from SUN FM, one of our favourite visitors, came into school to record our children describing objects, places, people, for their radio competition that members of the public ring up and try and guess.
